THESE WERE THE DAYS . . .

In an era dominated by science and technological change, great emphasis is being placed upon the humanities -- the branches of learning as having literature, history, mathematics, social sciences, music, art, drama and philosophy.

These branches of knowledge represent the flames of the unforgettable past in the lives of many Norcomites.

Beautiful memories of achievements, aspirations and joys have been preserved in our annual to rekindle the glow of yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Mr. Richard E. Moore

Through the years, I. C. Norcom High School has witnessed the rise of many great men -- men who have worked whole-heartedly to better their community, and themselves. But, perhaps the most memorable of these individuals is Mr. Richard E. Moore, a former Spanish and journalism teacher here. It is his warm, gentle smile, his deeply integrated interest in the welfare of his students and his diligent effort to provide the students with a firmly rooted interest and enthusiasm in their studies for which he will be most remembered. A man of innumerable experiences, he tends to leave with us a radiance which illuminates our pathway in school. The name of "Richard E. Moore" will linger forever in our hearts whenever a student writes his "Big Story."

The former journalism supervisor Mr. Richard E. Moore has left our faculty, but the job of training the young minds of the staff workers has been left to capable hands belonging to Miss Bertha Mae Norman. She is affiliated with the English department here at our school. Because she is so lively and versatile, we hope that she will continue to guide us in journalistic fields.

Miss Bertha M. Norman

Dedication

Mrs. Mary Davis Branch

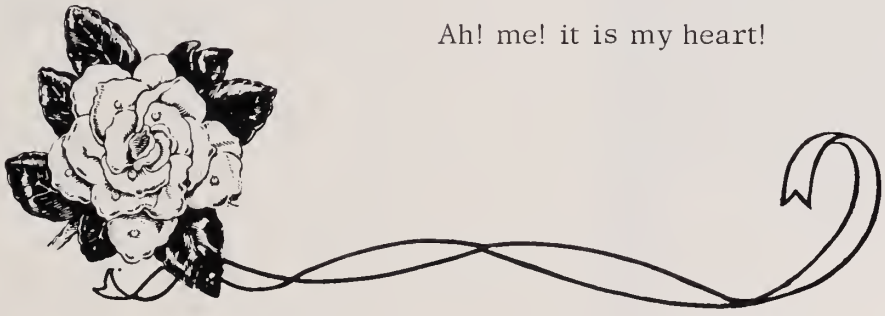

A teacher builded a temple;
She wrought with skill and care; --
Forming each pillar with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer,
None saw the unceasing effort;
None knew the marvelous plan;
For the temple the teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man

The sweetest flow'r that grows

I give you as we part.

You think it but a rose!

Ah! me! it is my heart!

You have distinguished yourself as a great teacher in your chosen field of mathematics. It all began in the Portsmouth Public School, fondly known as "Pepsi Cola College" in 1919. For thirty-six years, you served as chairman of the Mathematics Department and for forty-four years Secretary-Treasurer of I.C. Norcom. FOR YOUR LOYALTY, YOUR DEDICATION, YOUR DEVOTION TO DUTY AND your inspiring example to all of us, we proudly dedicate this annual to you.

"A Principal Is A Friend"

One who personifies those qualities of a good friend is our principal, Mr. William E. Waters. Well known for his wit, jocularity and witticism, Mr. Waters is a very intellectual and sophisticated man. As a friend to us all, he places the interest of the students first and foremost. His profound ambition is to make I.C. Norcom a giant among other schools.

Many times as students we do not understand the decisions of our principal; however, we should always remember that his decisions are in the best interest of our school. As we journey from day to day, we may stop and ask ourselves what it is like to run a school of over two thousand students and a faculty of more than a hundred.

He is one who places honesty and integrity above all else. If we seek advice from him he guides us in the right direction. It is because of Mr. Waters' gentleness, leadership, humor, understanding and integrity that he has acquired the name of chief from his faculty. A Chief and a Principal is our friend Mr. Waters.

It's time to go back to the homeroom.

"Beware the Fury of the patient Man"
Mr. A. T. Edwards
The Assistant Principal

Well-known around Norcom is our Assistant Principal, Mr. A. T. Edwards. As a friend and as assistant principal, he is well-liked. In his capacity as assistant principal, he has always possessed a kindness in his dealing with students and in the performance of his sometimes unpleasant duties. Students who have conferred with him testify to his never ending patience and understanding. He reminds us of the rule and our responsibilities and encourages us to follow the right path.

Mr. Edwards is a man who has always had the interest of the students foremost in heart and has been an indispensable partner to our principal. In his 16 years as assistant here at I.C. Norcom High his diligence, patience, ability, and remarkable personality have been a model for the students at Norcom to emulate.

He is a servant only to obedience, sincerity, justice, wisdom and friendliness. For those reasons we confer the accolade of great leader on him.

'Tis Life Beyond

I watched a sail until it dropped from sight
Over the rounding sea -- a gleam of light,
A last, far-flashed farewell, and, like a thought
Slipt out of mind, it vanished and was not.

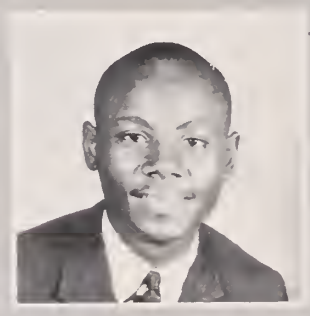

Yet, to the helmsman standing at the wheel,
Broad seas still swept beneath the gliding keel;
Disaster? Change? He left no slightest sign,
Nor dreamed he of that dim horizon line.

So may it be, perchance, when down the tide
Our dear ones vanish. Peacefully they glide
On level seas, not mark the unknown bound.
We call it death -- to them 'tis life beyond.

THE NORCOMITE

There is a very remarkable and interesting species of adolescents in the United States, called the Norcomite. He is found in his natural habitat. I. C. Norcom High School, nine months out of each year. The distinguishing characteristic of this species is his overwhelming desire to achieve excellence.

He may be described as a responsible individual, constantly striving to attain excellence. He always puts forth his best effort and in the process incorporates honesty and integrity into all of his acts. His sense of school loyalty is unshakeable and his sense of self-respect and respect for others is unquestionable. "A defender of right and inspiration to his peers, he is undoubtedly one of the fundamental mainsprings of his school."

As can be surmised, this species is very rare, however it thrives at Norcom High School.

"They Ask Me Why I Teach"

They ask me why I teach
And I reply,
"Where could I find more splendid company?
There sits a statesman,
Strong, unbiased wise,
Another Webster,
Silver-tongues.
And there a doctor
Whose quick, steady hand
Can mend a bone
Or stem the lifeblood's flow.
A builder sits beside him --

And all about
A lesser gathering
Of farmers, merchants, teachers,
Laborers, men
Who work and vote and build
And plan an pray
Into a great tomorrow."

Class Poem: The Memories of Norcom
-- by Shirley Williams

The lights of opportunity shine bright,
Leading us to life's profound heights
You stood by us and quieted our fears
But now we must stand alone
And face the world and the coming years
And as we move on, we'll all look up and say
It was the memories of Norcom that made us feel this way.

The time of departure draws near
And soon we will bid adieu
Ideas will not die, but they will change
And fill life with things anew
As time passes on
We'll all look up and say
It was the memories of Norcom that made us feel this way.

Farewell, Dear Norcom since this hour we do part
We thank thee with voice and with heart
No matter how far we travel
Or what our destinies may be
We'll always look up and say
It was the memories of Norcom that led us this way.

Class Song: Dear Old Norcom High
-- by George Elliott

Tune: "He"

I

Dear old Norcom High, we'll always miss you so
Now that we must part, for it is time to go
It is time to bid a sad farewell to you
We will miss the principals and teachers too
It has been the best four years we've spent with you
How we'll miss this school its Alma Mater true
Though it makes us sad to have to say good-by
We'll miss you so, Norcom High

II

How we'll miss you so you've been our guiding light
You have been a part of us there is no doubt
Though it makes us sad to have to say good-by
We'll miss you so, Norcom High

SIGHTS AND SCENES OF A BUSY NORCOM DAY

These students are all overwhelmed by the lecture on College.

Early morning homeroom in the auditorium. "They have that tired look."

It seems that Christine has been caught going in her locker

Busy!
Busy!
Busy!
Day!

I bet Norcom's big Betrand can't break through this defensive line.

It's up, up, up, and over she hopes!

2:30 and Boy do they look tired!

SOMETIMES

IF TIMES ARE HARD AND YOU FEEL BLUE,
THINK OF THE OTHERS WORRYING TOO,
JUST BECAUSE YOUR TRIALS ARE MANY,
DON'T THINK THE REST OF US HAVEN'T ANY.

LIFE IS MADE UP OF SMILES AND TEARS,
JOYS AND SORROWS MIXED WITH FEARS.
AND THOUGH LIFE SEEMS TO US ONE-SIDED—
TROUBLE IS PRETTY WELL DIVIDED.

IF WE COULD LOOK INTO EVERY HEART,
WE'D FIND EACH ONE HAS ITS PART,
AND THOSE WHO TRAVEL FORTUNE'S ROAD
SOMETIMES CARRY THE BIGGEST LOAD.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Norcom's Yearbook has always been one of the added attractions that both the public and students of the school enjoy thoroughly. The yearbook is labeled as one of the school's products. Yet, it is only through the diligent help of those who have surrendered their precious time and efforts that the public could see the finished product.

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to the businessmen who have contributed with their advertisements and their sponsorship; the photographers, Mr. Bailey and James Jones, who have contributed the background for this book; the school administration; the student body; the community; and the patrons who have played such an important role in helping to produce the 1965 I. C. Norcom Yearbook.

One of the greatest financial assistants is the Patrons Contest. In the Senior Division the following persons excelled: First Place -- RUTH BOYKINS, 4A-1, Second Place -- CHERYL DRAKE, 4A-9, and Third Place -- ROBERT HUCKS, 4B-1.

We are proud to award the winning prizes to the three classes that won the Homeroom Division: Mrs. Cooke's 3A4 homeroom class, Miss Clarke's 3A6 homeroom class, and Mrs. Edwards' 3A2 homeroom class, first, second, and third place, respectively.

This year the staff is proud to award 97 free yearbooks to the 97 students who sold ten or more tickets.

The student in the lower classes who sold the highest number of tickets was BOBBY CLEMMONS of 1A-2 (Mr. Darden's section).

The 1965 Yearbook Staff

Our sincere thanks to all persons who patronized the 1965 yearbook.
